

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Parkview Families,

When we come back from the winter recess, we will be starting a new policy regarding student check in. If your child arrives more than 15 minutes late to school, you will need to come into the office and check your student in. If students arrive without an adult to check them in, the office staff will contact you to find out why your child is late. This will help the Parkview staff make sure that all students arrive safely at school and get to the appropriate place.

Parkview Elementary will be conducting a lockdown drill within the coming days. While we are not disclosing the specific date and time due to the need for authentic emergency preparation, we want you to know that the drill will be held sometime before winter break. We hope this information will lessen the concern when your children comes home and talk about a lockdown at school. Our goal is to be prepared regarding the safety of our students.

Next week will be our last week of school before the winter break. Please encourage your children to keep their minds active over the break and encourage them to read daily. Each teacher will be sending home optional activities for students to complete over the break. We look forward to seeing your children when school starts again on Monday, January 9th, 2017.

-Mrs. Bergera & Mr. Yates

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parkview Elementary,

My name is Kaleb Yates and I would like to take a moment and introduce myself as your new assistant principal. I have already received a warm welcome from many of you. Parkview seems to be such a kind place where a lot of great learning takes place!

You might be interested to know that I am married and have 3 children. My wife's name is Heather and my kids' names are Jenna, Daxton, and Tate. We often call them, "Jenna Lee, Super Dax, and Tater-Tot!" Their ages are 8, 4 and 1. We also have a dog named Duke. We call him Duke because I am a HUGE John Wayne fan! I like to fish, camp, hunt, snowmobile, and ride motorcycles.

I have taught preschool, third grade, and sixth grade. For the last few years I have been in a leadership role as an instructional coach at Heartland Elementary in the Jordan School District. I have degrees from The College of Eastern Utah, Utah Valley University, and The University of Phoenix. I love being an educator and working with students, parents and teachers!

I look forward to meeting you in the halls, cafeteria and classrooms. I can't wait for your high fives and smiles. I'll try to learn each of your names as quick as I can. I look forward to our learning and growth as we start the 2017 year. I know that by working together, we can have a great year. I have an open door policy so if you would like to visit with me in my office, know that you are always welcome. I am extremely excited to be a Parkview Panther!

Sincerely,
Mr. Kaleb Yates

Way to go Parkview Panthers, you did a great job!!

OPEN ENROLLMENT

Open enrollment is from December 1, 2016- February 17, 2017. If you do not live within the Parkview boundaries and are attending Parkview on special permit, you will be notified in March about permit renewal.

If you live out of bounds and have a student starting school next year and are wanting them to attend Parkview, you will need to fill out a permit for each new student. Please apply at the Salt Lake City School District building in the Student Services Department.

It is a good idea to apply sooner for a special permit rather than later. Please ask the Main Office if you have any questions about this process or where you need to go to apply.
